September 2015

Seniors,

You should be on Family Connections every day. To supplement your knowledge of college choices, there are other things you should be doing:

1. Go to as many college rep visits as you can. They are listed on Family Connection. Sign up on there, or see me to sign up if you can't get on Family Connection.
2. There are days coming up that you do not have school, and these are good days to visit campuses. You should consider September 7, September 14, September 23, October 16, November 23 and November 24 College Visitation Days. I will be happy to take you to your choice of campus on these days. If you and friend(s) want to go to the same campus(es), I will set it up for you, and we can go. We have to do this in advance, and I need time to plan it, so let me know once you know what you want to do. Or, you can go on your own with friends or family.
3. There are lots of Open Houses that campuses have. Learn more about them by going to the Admissions section of your college's website. Most colleges have programs where you can spend a whole day on campus; at some, you can stay overnight. I can take you, or you can go on your own with friends or family. See separate list.
4. Most campuses have tours on Saturdays. Let me know in advance, and I can set it up for you, and take you if you my schedule allows. Or, you can go on your own with friends or family.
5. Regional events. See the separate email about Open Houses and Regional Events. It is also on Family Connection.

As always, please let me know if you have questions at dgonzalez@aacps.org.

Faber est suae quisque fortunae!

Sincerely,
